Join colleagues from the community, government and private sectors at a networking breakfast to hear Avril Henry on the subject of Meeting the Workforce Challenges in the Community Sector.

Avril will present innovative and fresh developments in recruitment, retention and workforce engagement - you shouldn't miss this!

This event is brought to you by the Workforce Strategy Project, a joint initiative of NTCOSS, the NT Government Department of Education, Employment and Training and the Australian Government Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations.

Avril Henry graduated from the University of Cape Town in Accounting and Economics, migrating to Australia in 1980, with two suitcases, $500 and a dream to live freely and make a difference.

Avril's career has spanned senior roles in Finance, IT, Project Management, Change Management and HR. In 2006, Avril completed a Ministerial Review into recruitment and retention practices in the Australian Army, Navy and Air Force. Following the review, she was appointed to the Navy Workforce Planning Committee.

Avril is the author of "Leadership Revelations: An Australian Perspective" and "The Who What When and Y of Generation whY?".

Her latest book, released in October 2007, is titled "Inspiring Tomorrow's Leaders Today: Breaking Down Generational Barriers At Work".
